Key Leader Community Values Agreement

Key Leader participants, adult advisors and invited guests are expected to demonstrate behavior consistent with the high ideals of the Key Leader program and agree to abide by the provisions of this agreement while in attendance at any Key Leader event. Every member will respect the authority of the Key Leader district chairs and site coordinators, as well as the Kiwanis International designated staff.

Responsible Behavior

1. Participants may not possess or consume any alcoholic beverages.
2. Participants may not possess or use any drugs or other controlled substances, with the exception of medication prescribed for the attendee.
3. Participants may not possess or use tobacco products.
4. Participants must abstain from any activity of a sexual nature.
5. Participants may not possess weapons, firecrackers, or anything of a dangerous nature or act in any way unbecoming of a Key Leader.
6. Participants may use personal cell phones and iPod devices only during free time as designated by the site coordinator. At all other times, they must be switched off. They may NOT be muted or listened to on ear-phones.

Lodging

1. Participants must sleep in their assigned dormitory room.
2. Female participants are not allowed in the room of any male participant, and male participants are not allowed in the room of any female participant.
3. Male and female participants may be present together in lounge and meeting areas when an adult chaperone is present.
4. All participants must abide by a curfew from 12:00 a.m. and lasting until 6:00 a.m. unless otherwise specified by the Site Coordinator.

Dress Code

1. Participants may wear “casual” clothing. This includes shorts, t-shirts, jeans, sweatshirts, and closed-toe shoes.
2. At no time will any clothing with inappropriate language or graphics be allowed. Any shirts, shorts, or skirts deemed to be of inappropriate length will not be allowed. Flip-flops or sandals are fine throughout the weekend, however please bring sneakers or closed toe shoes for the challenge activities in which all students will participate.
3. All participants are required to wear their name badge for all weekend events.

Enforcement

1. Violations of this agreement will result in notification to the respective nominator and sponsor.
2. Violations involving destruction of property, or possession, consumption or use of alcoholic beverages or controlled substances will result in dismissal of the attendee from the event.
3. Notification, in writing, will be made by the Key Leader International staff or his or her representative, to the participant’s high school, and to the parents of any member disciplined under this section.
4. These values are effective as of the time you arrive at this event, until the time you depart.

By signing this document, I also acknowledge that I am aware that photos taken of me during the event weekend may be published in Kiwanis International magazines, social media or other marketing and promotional materials.
