Portrait of a Volunteer

As you all know, Jenny Spalek has been with us for a few months now, working to help our club with its projects for two and a half days a week. She also helps out with Humane Society for three days every week. Jenny was on her way to the University in Miami, Florida, to complete a graduate degree in business, and decided that since she would be visiting her significant other here in Cayman, she should do something worthwhile with her time.

I asked Jenny: "What makes you tick? Why do you volunteer?" And here is her reply.

My motivations to volunteer

The greatest motivating factor for volunteering full-time in the Cayman Islands was to become a devoted ambassador for non-profit organizations and to raise awareness for a greater cause. Both the Kiwanis Club and the Cayman Islands Humane Society are fully dedicated institutions that operate for the benefit of children and animals, respectively. Having previously resided for six months in the Cayman Islands, I recognized the positive impacts of both these organizations and thereafter wanted to take part. Moreover, I believe that personal contribution to charitable efforts helps create and strengthen a community.

What I will take along from the volunteering experience

In these last three months, I got the chance to make a difference in the Cayman Islands. I will always remember the positive responses from children, community and animals alike. For my efforts during the volunteering experience, I feel fully rewarded by the smiles of children and the recovery of homeless animals.

My aspirations for the future

This upcoming fall 2011, I will be enrolling in the full-time Master of Business Administration program at the University of Miami, in Coral Gables, Florida. I have been awarded the Em-

Breaking News

Another school year ends

The Kiwanis Book-Mobile goes to George Town Primary for the final time this term on Saturday 18th June 2011.

All Kiwanians are urged to come out since there will be a party for the kids with ice cream and certificates.

Kiwanis President Wiekert and GTPS Principal Marie Martin will be discussing what kind of programme we can offer during the summer break and KNews will let you know,

You are invited

Ms. Marie Martin, Principal of the George Town Primary School, has invited members of our Club to attend their end of school year celebrations on Tuesday June 28 as of 7 PM at GTPS. Our Club will be recognized for our work with the BookMobile. Please let P Wiekert know if you plan to attend.

Key Club action

Diana Tibbetts, the new Lieutenant Governor of the Key Clubs of the Cayman Islands has hit the ground running, following in the footsteps of last year's LG—Gabriela Roberts. Apart from helping her team to victory in the recent Builders Club sponsored team competition for Key Clubs, she has already held two DCM's.

Other news

JGHS Wins The Field Day Competition for 2011

Congratulations to John Gray High School Key Club who out-pulled and out-performed all of the other Key Clubs and in so doing, won a camcorder for their club and school.

The event was the brainchild of St Ignatius Builders Club Faculty Advisor Vidalia Resendes, and the prize camcorder was purchased by the club. PP Roger and his BBQ were on hand to ensure the athletes were well fed, and K Leslie was there with his camera. You will find his photo collection on the Key Club web site: <http://www.keyclub.ky>. Just click on the link for Photos.

ery Means Findley Scholarship which is an institutional recognition for outstanding candidates applying for graduate business programs. My short-term goal for pursuing such program is to become employed as an associate for an investment bank or asset management company within the Americas, given my fluency in English, Spanish and German.

P Wiekert has asked Jenny to be an Ambassador for our club, taking ing the message of Kiwanis and our fundraising such as Buy A Kid Breakfast and Colour Me Cayman out to merchandisers. Jenny has been instrumental in redesigning our sales pack, and in creating a simple to use order form which any Kiwanian can use when they visit a new merchant who wants to help us by carrying our products.

We shall miss you Jenny—come back soon.

The six permanent Objects of Kiwanis International were approved by Kiwanis club delegates at the 1924 International Convention in Denver, Colorado. Through the decades, they have remained unchanged.

- To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life.
- To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.
- To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business, and professional standards.
- To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship.
- To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.
- To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and goodwill.
