Key Leader 2010—This Weekend!

Since 2005, more than 12,000 students have graduated from Key Leader events in the United States, Canada, the Cayman Islands, Brazil, El Salvador and Malaysia. The five principles of Key Leader have a lot to say to every member of any Kiwanis organisation. Here they are:

- Personal Integrity—Doing the right thing.
- Personal Growth—Developing in mind, body, and spirit.
- Respect—Showing consideration for self, others, and property.
- Building Community—Developing relationships to achieve positive goals.
- Pursuit of Excellence—Expecting and achieving the best.

It is not difficult to see how we should all be Key Leaders and adopt these principles in our lives and in our Kiwanis activities.

And now some information about this year's Lead Facilitator, someone to whom you are all going to want to say "Hi" - Jane Erickson.

Whether she's working with adults, high school or elementary students, Jane Erickson is known for her wit, warmth, and humor. She leaves her participants enthused and inspired, giving them practical ways to have fun in life while achieving personal and professional EXCELLENCE.

Creative vision, sound goal setting, powerful action-oriented steps, effective evaluation, and vibrant celebration are all mainstays of Jane's programs.

She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Wellness Management and Physical Education and a Master's Degree in Leadership.

Through her Bellevue, Nebraska-based business, The Wellness and Training Works, she provides a variety of leadership, management, teamwork and personal health-related presentations, training, and workshops on a national and international basis.

Combining her business experiences with 8 years as an advisor for a Kiwanis K-Kids club, as the 2007-08 President of the Kiwanis International Foundation, and as grandmother to seven incredible grandchildren has given Jane a multitude of stories, helping her help others to grow and leave their own positive handprints on their world.

Jane Erickson

Assisting Jane will be Dick Peterson, Director of the Key Leader program for Kiwanis, and our own K Jan Michael.

BREAKING NEWS

The Buy A Kid Breakfast collection last Saturday at Savannah raised about CI$1,000. Thank you Jerry, Venesha, PP Donna, Lois, Millicent, Carlo, PLG Ernest, P Wiekert and PP Mario for their efforts. We are supporting six schools from time to time.

More than 40 GTPS kids are now registered Kiwanis BookMobile users. Last week Saturday there were parents and kids waiting for the library to open at 10:00am and a full house of avid readers until closing time.

We thank the members of Saint Matthew's University Circle K and of the Key Clubs of Triple C School and Cayman Prep and High School as well as the UBS employees who turned out to ensure that our young clients had someone to read to. Even K Jerry was seen in this rôle as a finale before his departure.

UBS becomes the first company to enter a team in this year's renewed KiwaniBike team competition. Phil Jackson, Human Resources Manager, made the confirmation which affirms continued support by UBS and its staff for Kiwanis and for Cayman Heart Fund.

PP Steve Smith—A personal tribute

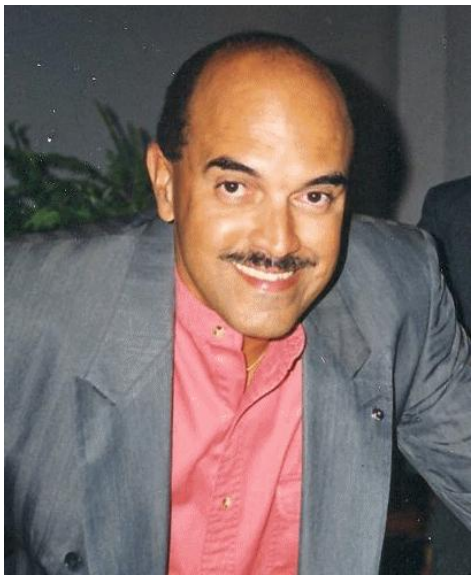
Every Kiwanis President who leaves a club better than he or she found it is a distinguished President no matter what an adjudication or contest may say.

Nothing characterised PP Steve's year more than the sense of fun and belonging to a family. It was a year filled with social events, some of which PP Fay Anne and I had the pleasure of hosting at Red Bay.

PP Steve introduced the club to fishing and showed that it was possible to have a lot of fun and, at the same time, raise money for Kiwanis projects.. The Kiwanis Fishing Tournament has not survived. To do so it needed the guiding hand of a fisherman and lots of help and good luck. But while it lasted, it was a powerful reminder to both Caymanians and residents of the presence of Kiwanis and the scope of its work.

Steve was a great communicator and knew just about everyone. This was a very valuable asset to have at the old Family Fair days at the Agricultural Grounds. You could rest assured that everyone would stop by the Kiwanis stand to chat with Steve and in the process would be convinced to buy a hot dog or a burger. I believe that PP Roger was the hot dog man and Steve was the burger meister but my memory may be faulty. The key thing is that we sold more burgers and hot dogs than anyone else, a matter of great pride to us.

These stories are about the public Steve. But there was the private Steve who was revealed only when necessary. Kiwanian Sharon, Steve's wife, knew this private side of him, his compassion, his altruism and his willingness to step up to the plate if he felt that someone had a problem and quietly say



"Can I help?".

During the Graffiti's Teen Nightclub event, the only KCGC project to win a Single Service Project Diamond Award in the club's history, and which was being criticised by so many who had not even visited it to see for themselves the miracle which was taking place, Steve put a simple question to me—"Paul, do you believe in what you are doing? If so, why do you worry about what other's might say?" Yes, Steve, I did believe and the kids who ran Graffiti's were magnificent. But in the end, one could not fight the mass of ill-informed opinion and after 6 successful months, we closed.

We have missed you Steve but we are learning that you have never really left our side. For us "older" Kiwanians, you still inform our every thought. (PdF)

We have received a CI$2,000 donation from RBC Wealth Management in support of this weekend's Key Leader event for High School students. Photo (L-R): Deanna Bidwell (Managing Director, RBC WM Caribbean), Wiekert Weber (President KCGC) and Fay Anne de Freitas (Manager, RBC Trust Services).

SMU Circle K is an unusual club since it experiences high membership turnover due to the short period of secondment of students to the Cayman Islands—typically two years. The club is active in the BookMobile programme. SMU members assist in ensuring improved reading skills of the George Town Primary students by leading sessions in which children read rather than just passively listen to an adult reading. In addition the club has done work with Bonaventure Boys Home and with the Humane Society.

Exams impact meeting times so check with KA Jan-Michael before attending as a visitor.

The six permanent Objects of Kiwanis International were approved by Kiwanis club delegates at the 1924 International Convention in Denver, Colorado. Through the decades, they have remained unchanged.

- To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life.
- To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.
- To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business, and professional standards.
- To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship.
- To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.
- To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and goodwill.
